Palliative Care Teams in COVID-19 Crisis

This learning pathway contains tools, technical assistance, and virtual events for palliative care teams experiencing high volumes of COVID-19 patients.

Leading Through a Crisis: Leadership Tips from the Field
Tips from palliative care teams about four important actions leaders can take to stabilize teams and maintain quality care through a crisis.

Team Health and Resiliency During the COVID-19 Pandemic
Nine practical, specific strategies for supporting team health during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Palliative Care Team and Individual Stress Mitigation Strategies
Short list of strategies that palliative care teams and individuals can implement to reduce the long-term impact of stress related to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Sample Policy: Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) Practices
Sample policy and visual reference guide for Personal Protective Equipment developed by Mount Sinai Health System in New York, NY.

Virtual Events

Palliative Care Teams Navigating COVID-19: Lessons from the Frontlines
In this Master Clinician, Thomas Morel, MD, and Susan Nelson, MD, share their palliative care team's experience with COVID-19 at Oschner Health System in New Orleans, Louisiana. They

Managing Through the COVID-19 Crisis
This Virtual Office Hour provides an opportunity to discuss managing the before, during, and after of the COVID-19 pandemic and the short- and long-term impact on your palliative care program.

Tele-palliative Care and COVID-19: Connection at a Distance
This Virtual Office Hour will cover technical assistance for providing effective telehealth visits during COVID-19.